Y., Area, Vol. 1: Hearings Before the Committee on Un-American Activities, House of Representatives, Eighty-Fifth Congress, First Session, October 2, 1957 Brownstone, a college graduate with 3 years of law study at Cornell University, had applied for a position as a laborer at Bethlehem Steel. When he moved to the Buffalo area, he assumed a completely new identity for himself and his family. Under the name of Fred erick J. Werner, he obtained employment at Bethlehem Steel. In his application he falsified his place and date of birth, previous addresses, previous employment, his education (indicating only high school), and gave pseudonyms for all the members of his family. To complete that sham, he used a false social-security card. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
