Excerpt from Catalogue of the School Bulletin Publications, 1900 The School Bulletin is one of the nve oldest educational journals in America, and the only one of them that has been under the same ownership and management from the beginning. It was the only American School jour nal which received the gold medal at the Paris Exposition of 1889, and it received the highest award offered at the Chicago Exposition of 1893, the dio ploma pronouncing it of the greatest interest and historical value to educators of all grades It is not filled with methods and spoon-food for young teachers who want their ideas ready-made, but appeals to super tendente, principals, and all teachers who regard their work as a vocation, and who want to look upon it broadly and comprehensively. In the feature of educational news it has never had a rival. Its chroui cles of what has happened in New York schools since its establishment arc unmatched in educational literature, and it has taken note of whatever has happened in other States that involved general principles.
